An Interesting Trip From Every Angle

CHAPTER V.

As recorded in our last Chapter, the special meeting arranged in the spacious chapel by President Moten to hear from the members of our party drew a crowd in addition to the faculty and student body. After two selections by the unequalled chorus of Tuskegee, assisted by their magnificent orchestra, and Scripture reading and prayer by the chaplain, Dr. Moten, representing the Institute, welcomed the visitors and told them how much the school appreciated the sacrifice of time from their important interests at home which was necessary for them to make the trip.

Editor Crews a Favorite.

Eager to remind them of the great debt owed to Booker T. Washington, Principal Moten said: "I take special pride, satisfaction and pleasure in welcoming these gentlemen to the school, and I am doing it in the name of the workers and the great Founder—Dr. Washington—for there is nothing that gave him more pleasure and real satisfaction than to have Colored people see the work, which he gave his life for—not that he did more for the Colored people and less for the white people, but he did it for humanity, and he wanted Tuskegee Institute to be made beautiful, attractive and clean, so that Colored people would be absolutely welcome. You don't see any 'Don't' signs on the grounds. In some places, you see signs, 'don't do this, and don't do that,' but here, there are no 'Don't' signs at Tuskegee Institute for you."

"I want to tell you, gentlemen, again and again, how glad we are to see you, and have you come to see us. We have a program arranged for your entertainment through the Local Business League, and these gentlemen are members of the Kansas City Business League and we are looking after them. We want to assure you that everything is open to you. We would 'give you the keys,' as Mr. Crews would say in Kansas City; but we have nothing locked up here. I take this opportunity to thank our good friend, Mr. J. R. E. Lee for suggesting and arranging for these distinguished gentlemen to come to us. I know that he made the suggestion, but he is too modest to say so. Again and again I want to assure you of a most hearty and sincere welcome to this great Institute, and I say great, because I did not build it, as I have only been here four years. Booker T. Washington built the school and made it possible for you to see what you do see, and these young people love and appreciate you."

Then to the students, Dr. Moten said: "You have before you, young people, some of the most distinguished people of the race—leaders, and if you ever get discouraged about what the Negro race is doing or coming to, just think of the men into whose faces you look and be inspired by the work they have done."

Each member of the party was introduced and responded by expressing their pleasure in their trip and paying tribute to the memory of Dr. Washington. Hon. Nelson C. Crews, Editor of the Kansas City Sun, was the last speaker and captured the large audience with his magnetic eloquence. Prolonged applause followed his beautiful expression of devotion to Tuskegee's founder, Dr. Washington.

tion in that Conference and fought successfully the battles of the race. Under his guidance, young people, I say, Tuskegee is going to measure up to the standards of Booker T. Washington, and through God, help make possible these conditions which will hasten the day when Ethiopia shall stretch forth her hands to God and the Negro in the North, South, East and West shall enjoy every privilege and every opportunity that every other American citizen is permitted to enjoy."

At Dr. Washington's Grave.

On Thursday, afternoon, at four o'clock, the party assembled at the tomb of Booker T. Washington to pay solemn tribute and homage to the memory of Mr. Washington. The ceremonies were impressive in their earnestness and simplicity. While the assemblage stood around the grave with heads bowed in reverence, the Institute Choir sang with tenderness, "Oh, What a Morning," after which Rev. J. W. Hurst, offered prayer. Then a beautiful floral wreath was placed upon the grave as a token of appreciation and respect. The presentation words were made by Nelson C. Crews, who said in part, "We recollect the fact that when we stand beside the grave of the race's most illustrious dead, we are standing on hallowed soil. But we come to lay a tender flower here to pay a tribute to his memory and to let Mrs. Washington, Dr. Moten, and the others who come after him, know that we are here as an indication of our appreciation for the wonderful work wrought by him for our Race. Servant of God, Rest from thy blest employ. The battle fought, the victory won, enter Thy Master's joy." Dr. Moten responded with remarks of gratitude in the behalf of the faculty and students. Benediction was offered by Rev. C. C. Galloway.

Visits to the Shops.

The distinguished visitors were further entertained by dinners at the various homes of the teachers, a reception by the Faculty of the Academic Department, and a banquet in the Teachers' Dining Room, Tompkins Hall, at which time Dr. Moten, principal acted as toastmaster and introduced a number of members of the party whose responses were both witty and humorous.

Amid the strains of Tuskegee's famous band, the following menu was served:

MENU

Grape Fruit Cocktail
Consomme of Alabama Beef
Croustons
Chicken a la Southern
Spinach and Eggs Creamed Peas
Tuskegee Yams
Dorothy Hall Rolls
Blackberry Jelly
Kansas Salad
Lee Waters
Booker T. Washington Cream
Moton Cake
Coffee Noire
Mints

The party also visited the various departments, went over the Farm, through the town of Tuskegee, out to the Harris Barrett and the New Rising Star School. On Thursday evening, the members of the party took leave of their old friends and new acquaintances made while here, who were at the station together with Dr. Moten and a large group of students, to bid them God-speed on their journey.

As the train pulled out and slowly went around the curve out of sight, the men were crowded on the platform waving their handkerchiefs, trying to catch the last glimpse of their friends and hear the last strains of the band. As they left Dr. Moten turned to a group nearby and said, "I have never seen a parallel case where the students were so enthusiastic over visitors as with our Missouri friends. A number of the students met me on the grounds and asked if I would arrange for another meeting, so that they could hear the other members of the party. That, you know is unusual and is one of the significant things in connection with our visitors, Professor Lee and his party."

St. Monica's Colored Catholic Church

You are cordially invited to attend the great

Eight-Day Revival or Mission

Given by

The Very Rev. Andrew Henze, O. F. M., D. D.

The eloquent Catholic Missionary of Cincinnati, Ohio.

On Sunday, June 6, at 10:30 a. m., the Very Rev. Andrew Henze, a most distinguished orator of Cincinnati, Ohio, will open a Week's Revival or Mission in St. Monica's Colored Church, 17th and Lydia, for the Colored people, Catholic and non-Catholic. A series of most interesting sermons and instructions will be given, and every Colored man, woman and child are kindly invited to attend. The opening sermon will be preached at 10:30 a. m., June 6, and every evening promptly at 8 o'clock there will be sermon and Benediction. Admission, of course, will be absolutely FREE.

The object of this Revival or Mission is to explain the sublime Christian Truths announced by the Church, and to impress upon everyone the one thing necessary for us all—to save our immortal soul. Furthermore, to reclaim those who have strayed away from God or who are addicted to any vice, to enable these to make their peace with God; to awaken the careless and indifferent to a better life; and to increase the fervor of the good and faithful. Hence the fervent and the careless, the good and the sinner, everyone without exception should attend this mission as everyone will be benefited.

If you are not a Catholic, come to hear what the Catholic Church is and what she teaches, especially about God, Jesus Christ and His Church, Confession and Communion, Marriage, Death, Judgment, Heaven, Hell.

Hear what the Church will do for you, how she explains the law of God, and how she helps us to be good and holy.

If you are a good, practical Catholic, come to be encouraged, to become better and persevere to the end.

If you are a careless Catholic, come to be awakened to new fervor.

If you are a fallen-away Catholic, come convert and do penance and the Lord will have mercy on your soul.

Come and bring your friends and neighbors. Everybody welcome.

FATHER CYPRIAN, O. F. M.,

St. Monica's Colored Church,
17th and Lydia.

atory to our departure every member of the party was presented a neat package with the compliments of Tuskegee containing the following articles: The portrait of Dr. Booker T. Washington, the portrait of Principal R. R. Moten, a pamphlet entitled, "Team Work" which was the last Sunday evening talk every delivered by Dr. Washington in the Chapel, "Ex-tension Work," a very interesting pamphlet by Dr. Clement Richardson now president of Lincoln Institute; "The Opinion of Educators regarding Tuskegee," from the National Educational Association; "The South's Labor Problem," by Monroe N. Work; "Tuskegee To-Date" and a stirring, bristling pamphlet on "The South and the Lynching Evil," by Principal Robert R. Moten. In addition each of us was given a handsome bouquet of roses from the Institute's famous green house and in fact we were almost smothered with attention.

A touching incident in connection with the departure of the party was the presentation of two large baskets of delicious sandwiches, by Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Jones and the matron of the dining hall, and the members of the party expressed their very great pleasure and satisfaction at being the recipients of such thoughtfulness and kindness.

On To Atlanta.

Dr. Moten directed Mr. Hoisey to accompany the party of visitors to Atlanta "To Turn Them Over," as he said to the Atlanta committee, who did themselves proud in carrying out the program for the visitors. The Local Business League of Atlanta composed of such young men as T. K. Gibson, Reuben Black, J. C. Ross, Charles A. Show, and their associates, who arranged every detail for the entertainment of the visitors.

GRADUATING EXERCISES OLD CITY HOSPITAL

The graduating exercises of nurses of the Colored Department of the General Hospital will be held next Monday night at 8:15 in the auditorium of the Paseo Y. M. C. A. The address to the graduating class will be delivered by Kansas City's matchless orator and editor, Dr. Burris A. Jenkins, of the Kansas City Post; and with Dr. Jenkins' known reputation for justice and fair play to our people, the auditorium should be crowded to its capacity. Excellent musical numbers will also be rendered by some of our best talent. The admission is free. The Baccalaureate sermon for the class will be preached at Allen Chapel Sunday morning by Rev. J. B. St. Felix Isaacs. On Tuesday evening a promenade and reception will be tendered the class at Garrison Square.

KEEP OFF THE GRASS.

In the territory occupied by our people the Park Board has resodded and beautified all of the waste places that were disfigured by the tramping of hundreds of irresponsible people over the grass plots and flower beds, and every Negro who appreciates the fitness of things should appoint himself a committee of one to assist in keeping these fools and loafers who have no respect for appearance off the grass. If you can't do it, call an officer.

(By the Associated Negro Press.)
Chicago, Ill., May 24.—The three big Methodist conferences have met and concluded their work of electing bishops and settling many questions of church polity. At Des Moines the Methodist Episcopal Branch broke its Negro Bishop deadlock of more than twenty-five years and elected Dr. R. E. Jones, editor of the Southwestern Christian Advocate, and Dr. M. W. Clair of Washington, D. C., Bishops to superintend the work among the Negro membership of the church.

W H Y?

A subscriber of the Sun writes us to know why an African Methodist Episcopal Minister can only be allowed to serve a charge five consecutive years while a bishop supposed to be governed by the same rules and discipline can stay fourteen years or for that matter for life. While the Sun does not desire to enter into a controversy over this seeming disparity in the merits of the two elements quoted, it very earnestly refers the writer to Bishop Henry Blanton Parks to whom he doubtless alludes and ask him if he has the courage why these things are. Personally, the Sun believes in the vernacular that "what's good for the goose is good for the gander" and that if a preacher can't stay but five years, neither should a bishop. Is that plain, dear subscriber?

DR. BUNDY DELIVERS TWO NOT- ABLE ADDRESSES.

Dr. Leroy N. Bundy the central figure in the East St. Louis riots in 1917 and who has been persecuted as have few men of the race, delivered a wonderful address at the Second Baptist church, Tenth and Charlotte streets last Sunday afternoon at 2:30 which made distinct impression upon all his hearers. Prefacing his address, a very fitting solo was rendered by Rev. W. W. Russell and a stirring and eloquent address was made by Rev. T. H. Wiseman of Columbia, S. C., after which Mrs. Bundy was presented to the audience and in a few well chosen words thanked the people of Kansas City for the many kindnesses shown her distinguished husband, Nelson C. Crews in the name of the Bundy Defense Committee called for an offering to assist Dr. Bundy in prosecuting his appeal before the Supreme Court and with the assistance of Prof. Lee, Mr. N. S. Adkins, Drs. T. A. Jones and E. C. Bunch and Secretary Smith of the Y. two hundred fifty five dollars was given for the cause. Hon. Charles H. Calloway, one of Dr. Bundy's attorneys presided at both meetings and fittingly introduced the speaker of the hour.

At St. Stephen's Baptist Church Sunday night hundreds of people literally fought to get into this spacious edifice to hear Dr. Bundy again and Rev. J. W. Hurst, P. P., pastor was compelled to issue orders to his deacons to admit no more when nearly two thousand people had been admitted into the room.

After singing by the choir and a short sermon by Rev. Porter of Little Rock, the pastor in a stirring address introduced Judge Calloway who briefly presented Dr. Bundy who made what the Editor considered one of the most remarkable, fervent and eloquent addresses to which he has ever listened. At its conclusion Mr. Crews, Dr. Miller, Deacons Lyons and Moore took the offering which amounted to $298.85. While here Dr. Bundy was entertained at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Calloway and on Monday he and Mrs. Bundy with a number of friends were the guests at an elaborate dinner at the home of Dr. and Mrs. D. Madison Miller. They left Tuesday for Oklahoma to fill a series of engagements.

CHAPLAIN SCOTT ENTERTAINED

Chaplain O. J. W. Scott of the 10th Cavalry, who has been attending the General Conference in St. Louis, Mo., spent several days in the city visiting friends and preached a delightful and highly appreciated sermon at Allen Chapel last Sunday night. He also spoke briefly to his many friends of the Second Baptist Church Sunday morning. On Tuesday night he was the guest of honor at a smoker at Community Center given by Allah Temple No. 6, of which he is an honored member and was warmly greeted by the Nobles who were out in large numbers. Chaplain Scott delivered a very inspiring and instructive address, urging the race to be good citizens, to be loyal to their country and its flag and to build up racial institutions to which all may point with pride. Illustrious Noble Emmett Spruill was master of ceremonies, which position he filled in the most acceptable manner. Dainty and appealing refreshments were served by a committee of ladies consisting of Mrs. Celia Johnson, Loyal Lady Ruler of the Golden Circle; Mrs. Minnie L. Crosthwait, and Mrs. Milley Wallace.

MR. J. J. MATTJOY, PROBATION OFFICER, WRITES CONCERNING CHILDREN'S HOME

To the Editor of The Kansas City Sun:
Rumor has been current that the county authorities have not been considerate of the needs of the Children's Home. As an official of the department, whose duty requires me to be in constant touch with this and similar institutions in the county, I know that there was an appropriation of five hundred dollars made by the honorable county court last January, and the sum of $380 during the current month; and along with other interested citizens, I might ask, what disposition has been made of these funds? Before criticism is indulged in, investigation should always be had, and those entrusted with public funds should apply them in a manner that will allay criticism and along lines that will meet the approval of those authorizing expenditures.

Yours for the race,
J. J. Mattjoy.

AN ENGLISHMAN SPEAKS.

HORATIO BOTTOMLEY TO AMERICAN AMBASSADOR

To His Excellency John Davis, United States Ambassador, 4, Grosvenor Gardens, S. W.

Sir: I have the honor to inform you that I have received from the National Association for the Advancement of Coloured People a record of barbarity by citizens of the United States which must scandalize humanity and civilization everywhere. This record is in the form of printed matter and illustrations. The printed matter is a selection of appalling accounts of Negro lynchings from United States newspapers. Last year alone it is reported that 14 Negroes were burned; 31 were shot; 24 were hanged; 2 were beaten to death; 1 was cut to pieces—all for the fiendish entertainment of your countrymen in public places. From time to time, Excellency, the high-souled Senate of the United States, its still more high-souled newspapers, and not a small portion of its peerless people have busied themselves with moral lectures to this country on its internal affairs, accompanied by numerous admonitions and threats. I suggest to your Excellency that you should do everything in your power to induce your noble, unselfish compatriots to put an end within their own borders to the infamies to which I have alluded.—From "John Bull" English Weekly.
